

Again But Different | Dec 30 | Rev. Brian Cook

ACF Family/Personal Summit: discuss each of the following topics over dinner. Celebrate how God has been “with us” and set measurable goals to “follow God” in 2019.

Big Picture:

What was the biggest win of 2018?

What was the hardest thing that happened in the past year?

How was God at work in the midst of both?

Value: “We are better together.”

What new and healthy relationships did I/we create this year?

What weekly rhythm contributed to health in relationships?

Are there healthy people I/we need to plan to spend more time with?

Are there toxic people, I/we need to create boundaries with?

Value: “We are contributors, not consumers.”

How did I/we serve others in the past year?

How did serving (or not serving) affect my/our lives?

What opportunities do I/we see to be servants?

In what new ways will I/we begin to serve others in 2019?

Value: “We lead the way in generosity.”

Is there anyone who I/we can offer unconditional forgiveness toward?

What’s the best thing I/we did with money in 2018?

Is God pleased with how my/our level of generosity in all areas of life?

How much of our monthly income will I/we be giving away in 2019?

Value: “Life is a mission, not a vacation.”

Who did I/we share my testimony with in 2018?

Who have I/we been praying would find Jesus?

When will I/we invite them to church in 2019?

What country are I/we currently praying for?
