

“Bear With Me, Would You?”

Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let each one test his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in his neighbor. For each will have to bear his own load.

Galatians 6:2-5

Ask These Questions:

1. Why do you think honest self assessment is so hard? If you're honest, are there areas in your life where you don't live what you say you believe?
 2. Since we are called to be the church and carry each other's burdens, how does this understanding of what "church" should really look like change the way you view Sunday service, our building, and all the days in between Sundays?
